

1301:9-2-05

Financial statements.

- (A) Each credit union member shall be furnished, at least semiannually, a statement of accounts. Such statement shall clearly reflect all transactions involving the member's account during the previous accounting period. Any member, pursuant to request, shall receive within a reasonable time a statement reflecting the member's current outstanding balances in the member's account.
- (B) Each credit union shall display at all operating locations, copies of its current and previous month's financial statements. Such statements shall be posted in both a conspicuous and available manner, so as to be accessible for inspection by all members.
