

Elevator Section Fees

Type	Description	Fee
Annual Certificate of Operation inspected twice per year	Certificates are invoiced once per year (independent of the inspection month). Fee includes a base rate, plus a landing fee, plus a BBS fee. (more than 750 lbs. capacity)	$220 + $12/landing + BBS fee
Annual Certificate of Operation inspected once per year	Certificates are invoiced once per year (independent of the inspection month). Fee includes a base rate, plus a landing fee, plus a BBS fee. (less than 750 lbs. capacity)	$55 + $10/landing + BBS fee
Annual Certificate of Operation escalators and moving walks	Certificates are invoiced once per year (independent of the inspection month). Fee includes a base rate plus a BBS fee.	$300 + BBS fee
Temporary Certificate of Operation for all types of elevators	Certificates are issued upon approval by the chief elevator inspector on a case-by-case review. Certificates are a permission to operate for construction purposes on new installations, or for special operation on alterations. A BBS fee is added to each.	30 day - $50 60 day - $100 90 day - $150 + BBS fee
Re-inspection for violations or adjudications of an annual, semiannual or special inspection	Existing installations are re-inspected and tested by our field staff in the event violations were found on previous annual or semiannual inspections, including special inspections. Fees charged on such an inspection include an inspection fee with a landing charge. The certificate of operation is not invoiced.	$120 + $10/ Landing
New Installation Permit for all types of elevators	Fee charged for the plan review process and associated overhead. Fee is nonrefundable, nor is the permit transferable to another elevator. Permits expire at the end of 18 months if construction has not started on the elevator device. Fee does not include any inspection fees.	$375 + BBS fee
Alteration Permit for all types of elevators	Fee charged for the plan review process and associated overhead. Fee is nonrefundable, nor is the permit transferable to another elevator. Permits expire at the end of 18 months if construction has not started on the elevator device. Fee does not include any inspection fees.	$200 + BBS fee
Initial Acceptance or Alteration for all types of elevators	New and altered installations are inspected and tested by our field staff. Fees charged on such an inspection include an inspection fee with a landing charge. In addition, the certificate of operation is invoiced on the first inspection.	$120 + $10/ Landing
Initial Acceptance or Alteration new escalators, moving walks and cart lifts	New and altered installations are inspected and tested by our field staff. Fees charged on such an inspection include an inspection fee without a landing charge. In addition, the certificate of operation is invoiced on the first inspection.	$300
Acceptance or Alteration Re-inspection fees for the second and subsequent inspections of all elevator devices, ,	New and altered installations are re-inspected and tested by our field staff if violations were found on the first inspection. The fees charged on such an inspection include an inspection fee with a landing charge. In addition, a re-inspection fee with a landing charge is added. The certificate of operation is not invoiced.	$120 + $10/ Landing + $120 + $10/ Landing
Acceptance or Alteration RE-Inspection fees for the second and subsequent inspections escalators, moving walks and cart lifts	New and altered escalator installations are re-inspected and tested by our field staff if violations were found on the first inspection. The fees charged on such an inspection include an inspection fee without a landing charge. In addition, a re-inspection fee without a landing charge is added. The certificate of operation is not invoiced.	$300 + $150
OVER -TIME Inspection fees for work conducted outside of normal business hours.	Customers may want inspections performed during periods of time outside of the field inspection's normal work-hours. An additional fee is charged above and beyond any other required fees. The fee is charge per hour, per the number of inspection personnel present. In no case is the fee less than four hours per inspector.	$60 per hour per inspector (not less than four hour charge)
Certificate of Competency	Application fee for special inspectors as established by director of Commerce.	$25
BBS charge	Fee charged for all certificates of operation including annual renewals, temper and replacement.	$3.25 per certificate
Duplicate certificates of operation	Fees for duplicate certificates of operation.	$10 + BBS fee
BBS fee	Board of building Standard fee	$3.25