INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE APPLICATION FOR SOLICITOR REGISTRATION

- A "Trade marketing professional" is defined as an individual who is an employee of, or is under contract with, a trade marketing company and who has successfully completed a training program on subjects such as the illegal serving of alcohol to persons under 21 years of age.
- A "Trade marketing company" is defined as a company that solicits the purchase of beer and intoxicating liquor and educates the public about beer and intoxicating liquor.
- A "Broker" is defined as a company that solicits sales of alcoholic beverages on behalf of a manufacturer or supplier, but generally does not take possession of the beverages.
- A "Solicitor" is defined as an individual who solicits sales of alcoholic beverages on behalf of a manufacturer, supplier, wholesale distributor, or broker, and generally does not take possession of the beverages.

Any individual acting as an agent, solicitor, trade marketing professional or salesperson for any manufacturer, supplier, wholesale distributor, trade marketing company or broker of beer, wine, mixed beverages, or spirituous liquor which products are to be sold or produced in the state of Ohio, who is licensed or otherwise authorized to do business in Ohio shall be required to register with the division every two years upon the individual's date of registration pursuant to section 4303.25 of the Revised Code. This registration is also required for all individuals soliciting the Ohio Division of Liquor Control and Ohio permit holders.

1. Please include a $50.00 registration fee made payable to the Ohio Division of Liquor Control.
2. Be sure to have the application notarized.
3. Please direct any questions to (614) 644-2411.

Section I

Complete all personal information for the individual applying for the solicitor registration and indicate if the applicant is employed by an Ohio permit holder (i.e., manufacturer, supplier or wholesale distributor), self employed or an employee of a trade marketing company, or a broker that represents alcoholic beverages.

Section II

Answer all personal information questions and supply additional information if so required.

Section III

Complete this section listing the company you are employed by or if self employed, the company you act as an agent for.

Check box #1 if the company holds an Ohio permit, Ohio supplier registration or Ohio spirits vendor registration ("VR") with the Division of Liquor Control. Indicate their permit, registration number or VR number.

Check box #2 if the company does not have an Ohio permit, registration or VR number and the company solicits sales of alcoholic beverages on behalf of a manufacturer, supplier or wholesale distributor. In this case, the company would be considered a broker or a trade marketing company for an Ohio manufacturer, Ohio wholesale distributor or supplier.

Attach to the application a letter of confirmation from your employer or the company you represent, stating that you are currently employed by or a salesperson or agent of such company and that you are authorized to sell and represent their products.

All trade marketing companies or brokers must have on file with the Division of Liquor Control a letter of authorization from the Ohio manufacturer, Ohio wholesale distributor, or supplier of beer, wine, mixed beverages or spirituous liquor that they represent.
