

1301:5-1-16

Effective date of licensure.

- (A) No person nor entity shall engage in any conduct for which a real estate license is required until an effective date of licensure has been established by the division.
- (B) For initial licensure, the effective date of licensure will be the date that the license is issued, which will be reflected on the license itself.
- (C) For license changes, the effective date of licensure will not be established until the division has all of the information and fees necessary to process and issue a new license.
