

Temporary licenses for members of the military and their spouses.

O.A.C. 4101:16-2-14

- (A) "Military duty" has the same meaning as set forth in division (A) of section 4743.041 of the Revised Code.
- (B) Pursuant to section 4743.041 of the Revised Code, the appropriate specialty section shall issue a temporary license to an individual, provided that the individual demonstrates to the satisfaction of the appropriate specialty section that all of the following qualifications are met:
  - (1) The individual holds a valid license or certificate to be a commercial contractor in the trade for which the individual is applying issued by any other state or jurisdiction;
  - (2) The individual is in, and certifies that the individual is in, good standing with and not under investigation by the other state or jurisdiction that issued to the individual a valid license or certificate to be a commercial contractor in the trade for which the individual is applying;
  - (3) The individual presents adequate proof that the individual or the individual's spouse is on active military duty in this state; and
  - (4) The individual submits to a criminal records check in compliance with sections 4776.01 to 4776.04 of the Revised Code and is not disqualified because of a conviction of, judicial finding of guilt of, or plea of guilty to a crime of moral turpitude or a disqualifying offense, as those terms are defined in section 4776.10 of the Revised Code. Disqualifying offenses include, but are not limited to, those offenses listed in rule 4101:16-2-02 of the Administrative Code.
- (C) Application for a temporary license must be made on a form approved by the appropriate specialty section.
- (D) A temporary license issued under this rule is valid for a period of six years, unless revoked or suspended.
- (E) A temporary license issued under this rule cannot be renewed.
