

Carmen Daniels

Chair

Business Programs Department
Columbus State Community College

Carmen Daniels is the Chair of the Business Programs Department at Columbus State Community College. The Accounting, Business Management, Business Office Administration, Finance, Human Resources Management, Marketing, and Real Estate degree and certificate programs fall within her leadership responsibilities.

She holds a BA in Journalism from Ohio University and an MBA from Cleveland State University, specializing in Management and Labor Relations. Her career spans 30+ years of leadership in publishing, insurance, and higher education.