

Cooking Safety

The Division of State Fire Marshal is reminding Ohioans about the dangers of cooking fires in the home. According to the U.S. Fire Administration, about 3,500 Americans die each year in fires and about 18,300 are injured. You can stop the fire before it starts. Use this fact sheet to learn how to prevent a fire in your home.

Watch What You Heat

- Stay in the kitchen when you are frying, grilling or broiling food.
- If you are simmering, baking, roasting or boiling food, check it regularly, remain in the home while food is cooking and use a timer as a reminder.

Keep Children and Pets Away from the Cooking Area

- Have a “kid-free zone” of at least 3 feet around the stove and areas where hot food or drink is prepared or carried.
- Never hold a child while you are cooking, drinking a hot liquid, or carrying hot foods or liquids.
- Keep pets off cooking surfaces and nearby countertops to prevent them from knocking things onto the burner.

Prevent Home Kitchen Fires by

- Staying Alert. You will not be alert if you are sleepy, have consumed alcohol, or have taken medicines or drugs that make you drowsy.
- Heating cooking oil slowly to avoid burns from spattering grease.
- Making sure you turn off the stove or oven when you are finished using it.
- Never using the stove or oven to heat your home.
- Double-checking the kitchen before you go to bed or leave the house. Make sure all appliances are turned off.

Be Prepared for a Fire

- Keep an ABC multi-purpose dry chemical fire extinguisher nearby. Never use water to extinguish a grease fire. Water and grease are a dangerous combination and could cause hot greases to splatter.
- If you are cooking and a fire starts, turn off the stove or burner and put a lid on the pan to stop it. Never throw water on a grease fire.
- Have a working smoke alarm. A working smoke alarm greatly reduces your chances of dying in a fire.
- Prepare an escape plan and practice it twice a year. Have a common meeting place for everyone to gather. Make sure everyone in your family knows at least two escape routes from their bedrooms.
