

Bourbon Raffles

The Ohio Division of Liquor Control and various Brokers will host one-night-only raffles for the opportunity to purchase a bottle of limited-supply bourbons. The schedule is below. There is no cost to enter the raffle, however, if you are chosen as a winner, you must purchase the bottle.

Raffles begin at 6:00 p.m. Entries will be collected for 90 minutes. At 7:30 p.m., winning names will be drawn. One entry per person. Must be present to purchase except at Simone's Beverage & Deli. A valid ID must be presented when entering and to verify winners. Must be 21+ to enter.

Bottles are for personal use, not for resale. The raffle is not open to employees of the Ohio Division of Liquor Control, the product Broker, JobsOhio, Agency store owners and their employees/immediate families.

Parker's Heritage 12 Edition

Thursday, Nov. 8, 2018 • 6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Parker's Heritage 12 Edition has soft classic scents of vanilla, hay, and light oak blend together. On the surface it doesn't seem overly complex, but digging deeper there's raisin, light green apple, and a smidge of cinnamon and brown sugar mixed together.

The scents mingle extremely well together and present a solid start to this bourbon. The sip provides a nice creamy viscous mouthfeel. Delicious syrupy sweet vanilla, raisins, a dab of lavender infused honey, and a touch of butterscotch. Even though it's a 100 proof bourbon, there's almost no burn which allows you to savor this for a while. It's gentle yet full of flavor and simply put, fantastic.

Parker's Heritage 12 Year is $89.98 plus tax.

Elmer T. Lee

Friday, Nov. 9, 2018 • 6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Rye is supposed to cut corn's sweetness for a drier whiskey, but Elmer T. Lee Single Barrel leads with sweet. The rye presents as floridly floral (think lilacs) and spicy (think basil and oregano), but always the sweetness, flowing beneath it all, like syrup made from sour fruit.

The nose brings notes of clover, vanilla and old leather. The flavor balances fruit, honey and vanilla with a light spiciness with a long and warm finish.

Elmer T. Lee is $37.95 plus tax.

Old Forester Birthday

Wednesday, Nov. 14, 2018 • 6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

With a rich mahogany color, initially you will find a singular focus, with a pronounced rich dark cherry cobbler note. It then opens into a dynamic build of caramel and dark chocolate covered smoked almond nuttiness with hints of charred oak; a touch of herbal lemon tea, sweetened with a touch of honey rounds out its depth of character.

Subtle sweetness blossoms into a warm and green spiced multi-dimensional experience, brightened by a lemon honey note followed by cherry cobbler. The finish is long and drying, with an herbal lemon honey sweetness.

Old Forester Birthday Bourbon is $99.99 plus tax.
